

Subject: Pesky squirrels

- > There were three country churches in a small Texas town: the
- >>> Presbyterian church, the Methodist church and the Catholic church.
- >>>
- >>> Each church was overrun with pesky squirrels. One day, the
- >>> Presbyterian Church called a meeting to decide what to do about the
- >>> squirrels. After much prayer and consideration they determined that
- >>> the 'squirrels were predestined to be there and they shouldn't
- > interfere
- >>> with God's divine will,
- >>>
- >>> The Methodist group got together and decided that they were not in a
- >>> position to harm any of God's creations. So, they humanely trapped
- >>> the
- >>> squirrels and set them free a few miles outside of town. Three days
- >>> later, the squirrels were back.
- >>>
- >>> It was only the Catholics who were able to come up with the best and
- >>> most effective solution. They baptized the squirrels and registered
- >>> them as members of the church. Now they only see them on Christmas
- > and
- >>> Easter.

"Based on what we know of (Eric) Rudolph so far, and admittedly it's fragmentary, there seems to be a fairly high likelihood that he can legitimately be called a Christian terrorist."

MICHAEL BARKUN, a professor of political science at Syracuse University who has been a consultant to the FBI on Christian extremist groups, in the Washington Post.

A rabbi is sitting on an airplane next to a Korean guy. After they have been flying together in silence for a while, the rabbi leans over and says, "You know, I've never forgiven you Chinese for what you did at Pearl Harbor."

The Korean looks shocked and replies, "What the hell are you talking about?!?!? It was the Japanese the bombed Pearl Harbor, not the Chinese. And besides, I'm not Chinese or Japanese, I'm Korean!"

The rabbi says, "Korean, Japanese, Chinese, what's the difference?"

A little while later, the Korean man says, "You know, I've never forgiven you Jews for sinking the Titanic." The rabbi looks confused and mad and says, "What are you talking about? The Jews didn't have anything to do with that! An iceberg sank the Titanic!"

The Korean guy replies, "Iceberg, Goldberg, Greenberg, what's the difference?"

"No religion is an island:
there is no monopoly on holiness.
We are companions of all who revere
Him.

We rejoice when His name is praised.

No religion is an island:
we share the kinship of humanity,
the capacity for compassion.

The hand of God is extended to all who seek Him.

He is near to all who call upon Him in truth.

God's spirit rests upon all, Jew or Gentile,

man or woman, in consonance with their deeds.

The creation of one Adam promotes peace.

No one can claim: my ancestry is nobler than yours.

There is no monopoly on holiness:
there is no truth without humility.

We are diverse in our devotion and commitment.

We must unite in working now for the kingship of God.

He is near to all who call on Him in
truth.

There can be disagreement without disrespect.

Let us help one another overcome
hardness of heart, opening minds to the challenges of faith.

Should we hope for each other's failure?
Or should we pray for each other's welfare?

Let mutual concern replace remnants of mutual contempt
as we share the precarious position of being human.

Have we not all one Father? Are we not all His children?

Let us not be guided by ignorance or disdain.

Let lives of holiness illumine all our paths.

The hand of God is extended to all who seek Him.

Let our deeds reflect that we share the image of God.

Let those who revere the Lord speak to one another,
leading everyone to acknowledge the splendor of God.

Dr. Abraham Joshua Heschel

No Religion Is an Island in his essay

"Poland and the United States."
